

GREEN DOLPHIN STREETBy Alprentice "Bunchy" Carter

*Excuse my hast, I mustn't waste
I've got a date to keep
Miles away where children play
Upon Green Dolphin Street.
Nostalgic Views
Deep shades of Blue
Are here within my reach.
As I ponder and wonder of my Beloved Green Dolphin Street.
Is more that you can imagine
There's where I first tasted life
I mean the purest life
Not to be despised dehumanized
Or crucified.
There I shall be a man again
And my woman she shall be mine again
And above our voice we'll cry anew
Ya hoo ru-Ya hoo ru (Liberation)
On upon temptation shown A date that I must keep hope that you would be there too upon Green Dolphin Street*
